

VACANCY POSTING – TEMPORARY SEASONAL EMPLOYEE

November 13th, 2023

The Duluth Airport Authority is looking for seasonal temporary employees with the potential to work full-time hours if needed. This position includes a combination of snow removal, equipment maintenance and operations throughout the terminal and airport campus. Employee must have flexibility to work various shifts, including evenings, weekends and holidays. The selection process includes an interview, physical screening and a background check. Please submit your resume and/or application to daa@duluthairport.com.